Overview

- Friendship
- Family
- Romance

- Make friends who are different
 - Backgrounds
 - Interest
- Show interest: ask questions, follow up
- Be vulnerable
- Everybody presenting has made friends at
 - School
 - In class
 - Club

Family

- Treat as friends
 - Find similarities
- Gratitude, expectations
 - Why we treat friends better than family
- Relationships that end up surviving and do well are the ones where work is constantly put into them
 - i.e. put more effort into (romantic) relationships than family ones

Romantic

- Not the end of the world
 - Or your child's life
- Respect privacy but be aware
- Show support
- Some relationships help people grow.
- Set a good example of relationships through your marriage/life.
 - Good in general; we watch our parents as we grow up
